Our Vision and Mission throughout the past ten years has developed to lead our group to a better position in the international and domestic markets, what has changed is our ambition reaching higher goals and targets ,setting plans and strategies to achieve what we see ourselves in the future.

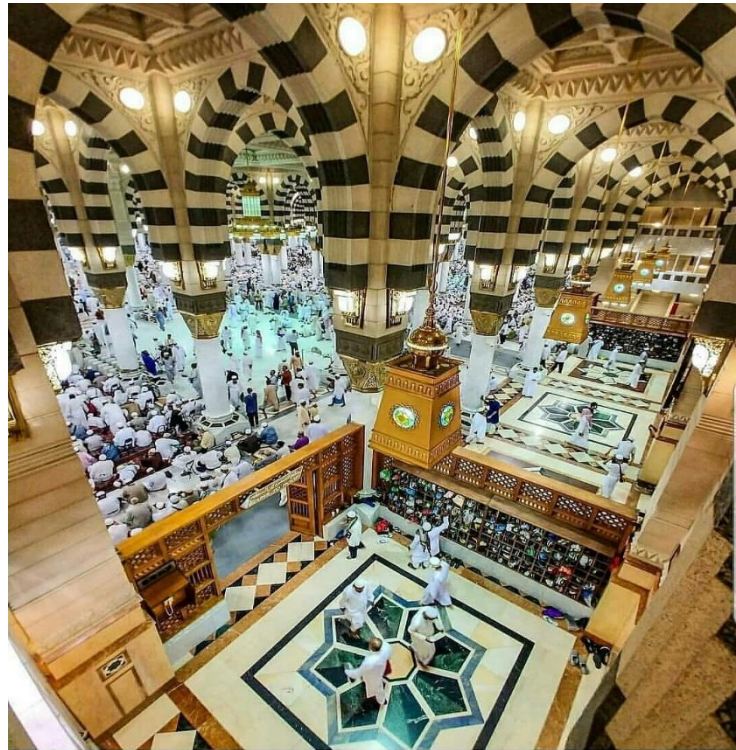

Persistence and hard work will lead to success and prosperity and this is what we have...

Hassan Maamoun , Chairman

The Ministry of tourism in Egypt, along with haj and Umrah ministry in Saudi Arabia decided to open the Umrah season 1440 H, 2018 - 2019 Early this year. This is a good sign for a fruitful season .

So starting December 2018 Maamoun Preparations for the season started, by making all necessary contracts regarding Accommodations transfers Visa requirements and other land arrangements to produce a friendly budget packages with a variety of standards from Economy to five stars.

Umrah Season 1440 H

Egypt Umrah market share this year 1440 H was limited to only 500.000 Visa, divided between the Egyptian travel agencies authorized to organize Umrah packages, (around 1750 Agents.)

With a small calculation each travel agency will serve only 285 Guests, leaving the market to fluctuations and monopoly.

This situation affected the sales and marketing of Maamoun Hotels this year, giving the way to change the Marketing plan next year to Egypt Hotels.

Summer Holidays

We were there this year

Ras Sudr

Red Sea Icon

A pearl from Egypt

Ras Sudr Geography

Ras Sudr is 200 km from Cairo and approximately 60 km from the Ahmed Hamdi Tunnel crossing in Suez, on the western side of the Sinai Peninsula, and almost opposite the resort of El Ayn al Sokhna on the opposite Red Sea coastline. Approach to Ras Sudr is by way of the main Suez to Sharm el Sheikh Road through almost total desert terrain. The road is dotted with farms where olives, tamarinds, and fruits are grown.

The majority of the town and outlying districts are inhabited by Sinai Bedouins who live in the areas of Wadi Abu Sidr and Soerp. Ras Sudr itself is made up of two residential areas, bisected by the main north/south road. One side contains local housing for workers, who mainly come from the north of Egypt and the Nile Valley.

The other contains private villa residences for professionals and second holiday homes whose owners are mainly from Cairo. There is also a large souk area with many shops and services including telephone, post office, internet services, council offices and police station.

1 Thailand's name in the Thai language is Prathet Thai, which means "Land of the Free." It is the only country in Southeast Asia that was never colonized by a European nation. The term may also refer to an ethnic group from which many Thai people descend.

2 A century ago, northern Thailand was covered with dense hardwood forests. Today only about 1/4 of the country remains wooded. Thailand has the second-highest rate of forest loss in Southeast Asia. Only Singapore has lost more. Today, logging is banned in Thailand

3 Thailand is home to the world's largest gold Buddha, the largest crocodile farm, the largest restaurant, the longest single-span suspension bridge, and the world's tallest hotel.
